

WHAT DO THE COLOURS IN THE PRIDE FLAG MEAN?

Yellow triangle and purple circle:
Represent intersex people

The unbroken purple circle represents wholeness, completeness, and the right of intersex people to autonomy and integrity.

Red: life

Orange: healing

Yellow: sunlight

Green: nature

Blue: harmony

Purple: spirit

White, pink and blue: Colours of the transgender flag

Black and brown: Represent LGBTQ+ people of colour, and also those living with or lost to HIV/AIDS
